

Quality and Environmental POLICY

Trucks and Buses Company's Quality and Environmental Policy

Trucks and Buses Company is a pioneer company in the field of engineering, manufacturing, assembly and sales of the commercial vehicles, buses and their spare parts, and its quality and environmental policy is:

- Providing the products of company with the quality that achieves the requirement of satisfaction of the clients with the proper price, and also the provision of the best service that satisfy the client in the after sales stage.
- Activation of role of the quality department in specifying the level of requirement of the quality of all production processes' control there of and following up in abidance there by with a level not less than applicable in IVECO Company "Holder of the license".
- Activation of role of the security, safety and environmental Department in the control of maintaining the local & outside environmental surrounding the Company Continuous improvement & development in the quality of the products, maintaining the environment & prevention of pollution through the contractions improvement of the effectiveness of rules of system of quality & environmental Department and raising the performance efficiency of the workers continuity & permanently.
- Compliance with the environmental law and regulations in force in the Great Jamahiriya.
- Continuous cooperation with IVECO Company in various field related to the product and so the system of quality management as per the provision of the industrial cooperation agreement and the after sales service agreement.
- Following up the execution quality control and adjustment of the products during and after sales and preparation of monthly reports in concern.
- Using the after sales service network for recording the deviation cases & discussion of the same of setting detail solutions in the monthly meetings.
- Working with the team soul in all fields of the work in the company to decrease the loss of time decreasing the coast of maintaining the environment.
- Specifying the aims of quality of environment that comply with this policy by the higher admonition & regular checking through the revision of the administration.

This policy shall be announced in the Company's departments & sections and the advertisements boards and it shall be published to all those concerned with the affairs of the Company & and environment and this document shall be yearly revised through the revisions of the administration for ascertaining the Continuity of its proper for work.